NEW MEDICAL WORK.

"THE PHILOSOPHY OF MARRIAGE," FOR THE DEBILITATED NERVOUS SYSTEM,

DR. LOUIS J. JORDAN,

THE PROFESSOR OF THE ANATOMICAL MUSEUM, Montgomery street, near California, San Francisco, has published four of his most important and instructive lectures in a neat volume for those who cannot, attend the lectures delivered at the Museum. Every Unmarried and Married man should read and study these important Lectures for the good of himself and offspring.

By addressing the Secretary of the Anatomical Museum, San Francisco, enclosing 25 cents in postage stamps, to pay postage, the Book will be forwarded to any part of the States and Territories. my24dly

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO OCT. 3.

EASTERN STATES.

The New York Muddle.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—An evening paper announces that Judge C. Barrett applied this afternoon to Judge Bixby, of the Fifty-seventh street Police Court for a warrant of arrest for Mayor Hall for alleged gross misdemeanor in converting public funds, or permitting the same to be diverted from their legitimate use by signing warrants for the payment of millions for work which never had been done, the said moneys having been paid to Ingersoll, Garvey, Miller, Smith, Ballard and others. The principal affidavit is made under the law charging such crimes under special section of the act of the Legislature which deprives the guilty one of office and forever prevents his holding office of any kind. It was sworn to by W. S. Copeland, formerly assistant book-keeper in the Controller's office. It charges that the vouchers on which said warrants were issued were fraudulent and so known by the Mayor.

The Justice did not feel authorized to grant the warrant, as some respect should be shown to the official position of Hall. He would send notice to the Mayor to appear to morrow morning. Should he refuse to appear, a warrant for his arrest would be issued.

It is intimated that counsel will to morrow apply for warrants of arrest against Tweed and others for fraudulently appropriating the public funds.

The World calls upon the Democratic State Committee to pledge the Democratic party to a prompt repeal of the city charter and the substitution of a new one which will render flagrant abuses impossible. Anything else will be merely the lopping off of twigs and branches, but this will cut up municipal corruption at the roots.

Small pox is raging in Brooklyn. The yellow flag has been placed in front of each building where the disease exists, and general attention has been called to the necessity for cleanliness and proper means to prevent further spread of the disease.

Fatal Accident by Fall of a Bridge.

ST. LOUIS, October 2.—A bridge in course of construction across Verdigris river, Indian Territory, near Fort Gibson, fell to-day with a large number of workmen on it. Three were killed and sixteen wounded.

Chicago Dispatches.

CHICAGO, October 2.—President Grant held a reception at the Tremont House to-day. A large number of citizens paid their respects. He left for Washington this evening.

Two fires occurred here to-day. At the first, four dwellings and contents were consumed and ten others injured; loss, $22,000. At the second four dwellings were burned; loss, $6,000.

The billiard match, last night, between Maurice Daly, of New York, and A. Gonnier of this city, 1,500 points, American carom, pocket table, for $1,000 a side, was won by Garnier. The score was 1,500 to 1,366.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Army Affairs.

WASHINGTON, October 2.—Special orders from the War Department give three months' leave of absence to Second Lieutenant Fred. D. Grant, 2d Cavalry, in addition to three months' granted to graduates of the Military Academy.

The Superintendent General of recruiting service has been directed to send one hundred recruits to Fort Snelling, Minnesota, for the Twentieth Regiment.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

A Crew Saved.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Later advices from Her Majesty's acting consul in Batavia announce the safety of the crew of the ship Niagara, wrecked off St. Paul's Island, in July last, who were reported to be starving. They had received relief, and would soon be taken off and brought home.

More Strikes in England.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—The colaor grinders, cutlers and carpenters of Sheffield, Bolton and Dundee have struck work.

The strikers in Nowcastle hold a mass meeting to-day and passed resolutions insisting upon their demands and expressing their intention to persevere in the strike until its objects are accomplished.

French Affairs.

PARIS, Oct. 2.—Thiers has written a letter to Victor Hugo, in reply to the latter's appeal in behalf of Rochefort. The President says that pardon of the civil commission alone can modify the sentence of the military tribunal.

Troops for Cuba.

MADRID, Oct. 2.—Fresh reinforcements for Cuba embarked at Cadiz to-day.

Swedish Affairs.

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 2.—The Upper House of Parliament approved the clause in the bill for the reorganization of the army, which makes military service compulsory on all male subjects in Sweden.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—Mayor Selby has vetoed the omnibus railroad extension ordinance, which enabled them to reach the city front and compete for the Oakland, Stockton, Sacramento and Vallejo passenger traffic.

The City Attorney has given a written opinion that the Bay View Turnpike Toll Road Company has forfeited its charter, and has no right longer to collect tolls. This was the last of the toll taxes levied on people going and coming to and from San Francisco. Ten years since it was impossible to leave San Francisco in any direction, even to go to the cemetery, without paying one or more tolls.

The Board of Supervisors have passed an ordinance repealing the order for Montgomery street straight, and that project is now legally dead.

Patton, the antagonist of Englike in the Alameda shooting affray, has been discharged on a habeas corpus, no complaint having been made against him.

The Arizona and Globe Mining Co., capital $2,000,000, to operate in Storey county, Nevada, was incorporated yesterday.

Maj. George H. Ensign, one of the projectors of the Spring Valley Water Works and the Lake Tahoe tunnel scheme, who broke down suddenly and became violently insane, a few days ago, died of inflammation of the brain at the Stockton Insane Asylum.

CURRENT NOTES.

A native of Alaska applied to the Boston City Hospital for admission recently, presenting a letter from the French Consul. When told that he should have made application through the German Consul, he replied with much feeling: "Never! I will die a Frenchman."

Somebody has started a story which is going the rounds of the press, of a man who is alive after having his neck broken. We trust none will be so foolish as to suppose that it is literally true. It is nothing but an allegorical description of the condition of the Democratic party.

One effect of the thirst for early and copious information caused by the late war, in Europe seems to have been, to accustom the newspapers in Great Britain to obtain by telegraph, whole columns of correspondence which formerly they would have been content to receive by railway parcel or post.

The evidences of Tammany frauds multiply on all sides. The Tribune publishes an exposure of frauds in the Harbor Department, which are enormously large. They compel ships to pay exorbitant figures for unloading, and very frequently change ships from one dock to another, because the Harbormasters desire to put in ships that pay better. Several affidavits are given showing that the Harbormasters charge $80 to $100 for services worth $10 or 12. Some of the cases will be called before Justice Ledwith in a few days, and important testimony is expected.

Total land disposed of at the Walla Walla Land Office last month, 4,527 acres.

OREGON.

A company mining on Rogue river employs about 100 Chinamen.

Perry Larkin, of South Yamhill, killed a porcupine the other day. This animal is very rare in Oregon.

The Jacksonville Times (Dem.) is making vigorous war on Gov. Grover for his appointment of Duncan to be Judge of that county. Several of its contemporaries, among them the Herald, have tried to silence it, but it fights all of them, dealing right and left.

The Dallas Republican learns that there are about forty settlers on the Lower Nehalem, consisting mostly of men without families. Plenty of land can be obtained that is easily cleared, having to clear but small brush and vine maple. Vegetables of all descriptions grow prolific, and fish of different kinds are easily obtained from the waters.

From the Statesman Mr. Woodworth informs us that swarms of workmen are grading the road through the Calipooia mountains via Pass Creek, and their many forms one of the most striking features of the wild landscape. It seemed as though a thousand men were at work, and teams in proportion. One effect has been that they have devoured everything before, behind and around them, like an army of grasshoppers, so that it is almost impossible to get anything for man or beast to eat; but luckily for the country, they pay cash at good rates for all they consume, and times are good thereabouts.

The Statesman says it is able to identify the dissatisfied immigrant who wrote the communication in our paper Saturday. It says he is the same man whom Ralph Geer met returning across the plains in 1847, and who gathered around him the way-faring Oregon and who the reasons were, why he didn't wish to remain here. Those reasons were several, and he gave them as follows: "In the first place, there ain't no hoss thar; and in the second place, they can't raise corn thar; and if they can't raise corn thar they can't make bacon thar, and I won't live now nor that they can't make bacon, for I must have my honey, and my corn and my bacon sure, and these's the reasons why I am going back to the States, gentlemen." They say that the third time is always proven successful, so we shall hope to see "Immigrant" come back here in about a dozen more years and make a live of it.

THE TERRITORIES.

Contributions for the great show on the 6th and 7th of October, at Olympia, are arriving.

The Union reports thirteen new cases of small-pox at Walla Walla. One a child of W. M. Ewing, had died.

A Walla Walla paper says it has never seen "so lost" on so many houses as at present. Cause, the small pox scare.

A woman at Olympia has a pigeon that foolishly imagines itself a hen. It eats and roosts with the hens, and patronizes young chickens by trying to cover them with its little wings.

An anti-gambling club has been formed at Port Townsend. Its members are supposed to be persons who are "dead broke" by gambling, and therefore know the need of such a club.

A company has been formed to build reduction works at Helena (Montana), and the stock is all taken. Heretofore vast quantities of ore have been sent from the Territory for reduction.

There is another uproar in Utah and Brigham Young is indicted for his polygamous conduct. But so much noise has been made about polygamy on so many occasions, resulting in nothing, that we do not look with a remarkable degree of confidence for an immediate social revolution in Utah.

A Montana paper says: There is no doubt that the flush times of Montana have passed away. The decline in surface mining; the growing necessity for capital and economy in conducting deeper operations, and the gradual absorption of the claims into the hands of companies, or large owners, necessitate a change in the methods of business; and this change, in turn, requires cheaper and more rapid transportation. The railroad will revolutionize trade; and it certainly will not bring back the golden past to the small dealers.

Advices from Alaska state that some weeks ago the schooner Mary Taylor of San Francisco, touched at a point 15 miles from Sitka and cached eighteen cases of spirits. Some time subsequently he went to the point and placed the cases in a canoe to carry them off. An Indian tribe living near overhauled the Captain's canoe and were presented with a case of the spirits to induce them to go away. Afterwards they followed the Captain and tried to take the remaining seventeen cases, when a scuffle ensued and one of the Indians was shot—accidentally it is said—through the neck and killed. The Captain proceeded to Sitka and surrendered himself and crew to the military authorities. Three Indians who were implicated in the affair were also arrested and put under a guard. One of them in attempting to escape was shot through the breast and very badly wounded, but will recover.

IMPROVING WOMAN'S POSITION.—The unique ideas of Mrs. Woodhull on improving the race of men are producing considerable consternation among women inclined to the principle of Woman Suffrage. For the first time in this age at least women finds herself presented simply as a breeding animal. We should feel it our duty to beg pardon of the sex for giving expression to the idea if it had not been advanced by one of themselves. Mrs. Woodhull, Mrs. Stanton, Miss Anthony and their associates are very much dissatisfied with woman's position now, and desire to improve it. They have got so far along the road of progress that they claim it one of woman's rights and privileges to choose the man to be father of her children without regard to previous alliances on the part of either. The sentiment of love is to be ignored. Women of the Woodhull-Stanton stripe are too lofty to stoop to sentiment. They will choose a male for his inches and his physical development. If the result of her first choice is not satisfactory, she may choose again and continue to experiment until she meets one who realizes her ideal of what a father should be. Mrs. Woodhull assures us there is nothing sensual in this: it is all in the interest of science and for the benefit of the human race. "We need" says this eccentric woman, "a new race of men." The friends of Mrs. Stanton will possibly say that Mrs. Stanton should not be held responsible for Mrs. Woodhull's opinions. Far be it from us to hold anybody responsible for Mrs. Woodhull's opinions, but Mrs. Stanton's ideas as advanced in her lectures here were almost identical. She was a little more cautious in her phraseology and tried to insinuate her meaning rather than utter it. Mrs. Woodhull is a bolder woman. Apparently with no more moral sense than the most abandoned outcast of her sex, she desires by the boldness and vileness of her utterances to attract attention and make herself talked about. A woman might accomplish the same purpose by appearing nude in the streets of New York, and we do not know why one should be held in higher esteem than the other. The whole question of woman's suffrage has an unpleasant odor and the really good women who went with it for a time, in the hope that good might come from it, are now not only cutting clear of it but with a commendable flexibility of statement declaring that they never believed in it. Women of the Woodhull-Stanton-Anthony stripe are offensive to the senses.—Golden Era.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN STATES.

"Democratic" New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The publication of the list of names on the pay roll is continued. In some instances there are found names of persons long since deceased. Tammany officers draw the whole amount of dead men's wages. Tweed's nurse and the Department of Buildings have the largest number of sinecures. In the Financial Department, besides monthly pay, clerks receive as much more for collecting arrears, &c. A man named Starkweather averaged about $2,000 a month as collector of assessments. Geo. H. Lynch received $1,100 a month for filling three offices. Many of these officials are related to the controlling powers. Starkweather is father-in-law to Gov. Hoffman. Politicians of the worst and most ignorant order are found scattered through this roll of sinecures, which includes retired runseliers, bar-room loafers, ex convicts, gamblers, bruisers and other bad characters. It is believed that the support of this army of ring hirelings costs the city $1,200,000 a year.

Connecticut Town Elections.

HARTFORD, Oct. 3.—In the town elections yesterday, the Republicans elected nearly their entire ticket here and at New Haven.

Secretary Fish to Retire.

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—The Times' Washington special says it seems indisputable that Secretary Fish has decided on an early retirement from the Cabinet. He retires of his own wish, and the change has no political bearings. In fact there will be an entire reorganization of the State Department. Mr. Davis, Assistant Secretary, goes to the Geneva Conference, and the law officer has just retired to take a position under the Japanese Government.

The report is that Andrew D. White of New York is to succeed Fish.

Additional New York News.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—This morning Judge Barnard, in his charge to the Grand Jury, alluded to the irregularities existing in the city government. He said one of the evils which should be stopped was the taking of illegal fees by officials. The election laws were flagrantly violated, and it was his intention to keep the Grand Jury in session till after the election so as to secure a fair election. In this connection he charged upon the general corruption. He said that nearly all the fast horses and fast women in this city are supported from the city treasury.

Wm. H. Seward arrived to-day from Europe. His friends gave him a reception in the Bay. He left immediately for Penkahill.

New York Democratic Convention.

ROCHESTER, October 3.—The city is full of attendants upon the Democratic State Convention. There is talk of excluding the Tammany delegates. Indications are that there will be no contest for the organization, and Tammany will not press for admission.

Death of Gen. Totten.

ST. LOUIS, October 3.—Gen. James Totten, a well known artillery officer, died at Sedalia, Mo., yesterday.

North Carolina Ku Klux.

WASHINGTON, October 3.—Telegrams from North Carolina says that Bond refuses to continue the Ku Klux cases. Nine pleaded guilty yesterday.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—The American ship Black Hawk was sold by the United States Marshal on a bond given at Rio at Merchants' Exchange to day for $15,750, C. A. Low & Co. being the purchasers.

The British ship Talavera as she now lies ashore at San Ramon Bay, will be sold to-morrow.

The recent prosecution of lottery ticket vendors have practically ended the sale of tickets here in nearly all schemes announced in the interior towns. The Grass Valley tickets are, however, selling to a considerable extent, and the Brooklyn (California) enterprise is going ahead, tickets being taken up quite rapidly.

This forenoon seems cooler than yesterday, but the difference is not great. The heat is still very severe.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—The Odd Fellows' College and Home Trustees met this forenoon, and resolved that the institution required $100,000 cash to be raised within one year, and then elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: President, Newton Booth; Vice President, J. A. McClelland; Secretary, C. N. Fox; Treasurer, H. B. Brooks.

A dispatch from San Pedro says the hull of the ship which went ashore there the second time, can be got off, not having filled as anticipated, and the weather being calm.

Demurrers to the indictment of the lottery ticket sellers were argued in the Municipal Court to day and submitted, with leave to file brief within a week.

Further removals in the Custom House are expected immediately, now that the election is over.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 3.—Lower prices do not affect the movements in wool. Large stocks are arriving from the interior.

A slight shock of an earthquake was felt in the vicinity of Wilmington on Saturday.

SHASTA, Oct. 3.—Under Sheriff Jackson and party have arrived, bringing two stage robbers, five horses and four rifles, captured 15 miles from Steamville. Three of the robbers escaped before the Sheriff's party came upon them.

NEVADA

CARSON, Oct. 3.—Isaacs, the guard who was so badly wounded at the breaking out of the prison-ers at Carson, had his leg amputated to-day. Fears are entertained that he will not recover.

UTAH.

More Arrests for Polygamy.

SALT LAKE, Oct. 3.—In the court this morning the counsel for Brigham Young asked that he be admitted to bail. Judge McKean denied the application for bail, but allowed the prisoner to remain in his own house unguarded for the present.

Daniel H. Wells, Mayor of Salt Lake City, and third President of the Mormon Church, was arrested this afternoon on charges similar to those preferred against Brigham Young. C. H. Hempstead and Thomas Fitch are counsel for defendants.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

In the Esquimalt District there are six candidates for the Local House, and all are trying to out under each other by demagguling on the Chinese question. If they would but send for Gov. Seymour!

The Indians at Cowichan are making great progress in the arts of civilization. They are building as good houses as the whites, and this year have been raising wheat, have fenced in a good bit of land, and have plenty of cattle and hogs.

The Common Council of Victoria has been trying to prosecute the Colonist for libel, but has got no further than the discovery that an appeal to law by the corporation in such a case is impossible. The Colonist suggests to individual members of the Council that they commence an action.

What would be the probable result of a national marriage between Tammany frauds and Ku Klux violence may be pretty clearly inferred from the demeanor of the respective parties to the courtship, now that each is on its best behavior. A prominent Southern Republican, however, a native of the South, and an uncompromising Union man throughout the war, whose character and sources of information are said to be alike reliable, has written a letter to a Government official at Washington, in which he states the Democratic programme to be to carry New York by fraud, and to remain quiescent in the South up to within a few weeks of the election, when the Ku-Klux organization is to develop its whole strength to intimidate Union men from the polls if they can, and to drive them away if they must.

Woman Suffrage—"Free Love."

A REPLY TO "T."

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

SIR: I notice your correspondent T., in the last WEEKLY OREGONIAN, raises the bugbear cry of "free love" against some of the leading advocates of woman suffrage. It seems freedom, in his mind, is necessarily connected with licentiousness, and slavery is the only condition in which virtue can be maintained. The woman suffrage advocates he names, do not advocate any principle that tends to licentiousness. They teach that no sexual relations that are not founded on pure love, affection and harmony, should be maintained. Is there anything unjust or unreasonable in that? or is there anything just or reasonable in compelling by law or public sentiment, two to continue their sexual relations in discord, disgust and hate? The physical, intellectual and moral character opposing is determined from the surroundings—physical, mental passional and moral exercise of the parents, especially of the mother during the period of gestation. What then must be the character of the offspring of parents where no true love, affection or harmony exists? Such are the children of pure lust, divorce and confusion, with unbalanced minds and are anything but durable results. Yet the world is mostly peopled with just such results. The children of pure love, affection and harmony, are the exceptions and not the rule. Then why, in the name of reason and common sense, continue to force by law, the perpetuation of such results? Every child has the natural right to be well born, but are the children of such unholy relations well born? No wonder the good people think such children ought to be "born again." Your correspondent T. seems unable to look at this subject in the light of reason and common sense, but through his early prejudice. This is his misfortune.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO OCT. 3.

EASTERN STATES.

The New York Muddle.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—An evening paper announces that Judge C. Barrett applied this afternoon to Judge Bixby, of the Fifty-seventh street Police Court for a warrant of arrest for Mayor Hall for alleged gross misdemeanor in converting public funds, or permitting the same to be diverted from their legitimate use by signing warrants for the payment of millions for work which never had been done, the said moneys having been paid to Ingersoll, Garvey, Miller, Smith, Ballard and others. The principal affidavit is made under the law charging such crimes under special section of the act of the Legislature which deprives the guilty one of office and forever prevents his holding office of any kind. It was sworn to by W. S. Copeland, formerly assistant book-keeper in the Controller's office. It charges that the vouchers on which said warrants were issued were fraudulent and so known by the Mayor.

The Justice did not feel authorized to grant the warrant, as some respect should be shown to the official position of Hall. He would send notice to the Mayor to appear to morrow morning. Should he refuse to appear, a warrant for his arrest would be issued.

It is intimated that counsel will to morrow apply for warrants of arrest against Tweed and others for fraudulently appropriating the public funds.

The World calls upon the Democratic State Committee to pledge the Democratic party to a prompt repeal of the city charter and the substitution of a new one which will render flagrant abuses impossible. Anything else will be merely the lopping off of twigs and branches; but this will cut up municipal corruption at the roots.

Small pox is raging in Brooklyn. The yellow flag has been placed in front of each building where the disease exists, and general attention has been called to the necessity for cleanliness and proper means to prevent further spread of the disease.

Fatal Accident by Fall of a Bridge.

ST. LOUIS, October 2.—A bridge in course of construction across Yadigaris river, Indian Territory, near Fort Gibson, fell to-day with a large number of workmen on it. Three were killed and sixteen wounded.

Chicago Dispatches.

CHICAGO, October 2.—President Grant held a reception at the Tremont House to-day. A large number of citizens paid their respects. He left for Washington this evening.

Two fires occurred here to-day. At the first, four dwellings and contents were consumed and ten others injured; loss, $22,000. At the second four dwellings were burned; loss, $6,000.

The billiard match, last night, between Maurice Daly, of New York, and A. Gaudier of this city, 1,500 points, American carom, pocket table, for $1,000 a side, was won by Garnier. The score was 1,500 to 1,350.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Army Affairs.

WASHINGTON, October 2.—Special orders from the War Department give three months' leave of absence to Second Lieutenant Fred. D. Grant, 2d Cavalry, in addition to three months' granted to graduates of the Military Academy.

The Superintendent General of recruiting service has been directed to send one hundred recruits to Fort Snelling, Minnesota, for the Twentieth Regiment.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

A Crew Saved.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Later advices from Her Majesty's acting consul in Batavia announce the safety of the crew of the ship Niagara, wrecked off St. Paul's Island, in July last, who were reported to be starving. They had received relief and would soon be taken off and brought home.

More Strikes in England.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—The joiner grinders, cutlers and carpenters of Sheffield, Bolton and Dundee have struck work.

The strikers in Newcastle hold a mass meeting to-day and passed resolutions insisting upon their demands and expressing their intention to persevere in the strike until its objects are accomplished.

French Affairs.

PARIS, Oct. 2.—Thiers has written a letter to Victor Hugo, in reply to the latter's appeal in behalf of Rochefort. The President says that pardon of the civil commission alone can modify the sentence of the military tribunal.

Troops for Cuba.

MADRID, Oct. 2.—Fresh reinforcements for Cuba embarked at Cadiz to-day.

Swedish Affairs.

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 2.—The Upper House of Parliament approved the clause in the bill for the reorganization of the army, which makes military service compulsory on all male subjects in Sweden.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—Mayor Selby has vetoed the omnibus railroad extension ordinance, which enabled them to reach the city front and compete for the Oakland, Stockton, Sacramento and Vallejo passenger traffic.

The City Attorney has given a written opinion that the Bay View Turnpike Toll Road Company, has forfeited its charter, and has no right longer to collect tolls. This was the last of the toll taxes levied on people going and coming to and from San Francisco. Ten years since it was impossible to leave San Francisco in any direction, even to go to the cemetery, without paying one or more tolls.

The Board of Supervisors have passed an ordinance repealing the order for Montgomery street straight, and that project is now legally dead.

Patton, the antagonist of Englise in the Alameda shooting affray, has been discharged on a habeas corpus, no complaint having been made against him.

The Arizona and Globe Mining Co., capital $2,000,000, to operate in Storey county, Nevada, was incorporated yesterday.

Maj. George H. Ensign, one of the projectors of the Spring Valley Water Works and the Lake Tahoe tunnel scheme, who broke down suddenly and became violently insane, a few days ago, died of inflammation of the brain at the Stockton Insane Asylum.

CURRENT NOTES.

A native of Alsace applied to the Boston City Hospital for admission recently, presenting a letter from the French Consul. When told that he should have made application through the German Consul, he replied with much feeling: "Never! I will die a Frenchman."

Somebody has started a story which is going the rounds of the press, of a man who is alive after having his neck broken. We trust none will be so foolish as to suppose that it is literally true. It is nothing but an allegorical description of the condition of the Democratic party.

One effect of the thirst for early and copious information caused by the late war in Europe seems to have been, to accustom the newspapers in Great Britain to obtain by telegraph, whole columns of correspondence which formerly they would have been content to receive by railway parcel or post.

The evidences of Tammany frauds multiply on all sides. The Tribune publishes an exposure of frauds in the Harbor Department, which are enormously large. They compel ships to pay exorbitant figures for unloading, and very frequently change ships from one dock to another, because the Harbormasters desire to put in ships that pay better. Several affidavits are given showing that the Harbormasters charge $80 to $100 for services worth $10 or 12. Some of the cases will be called before Justice Ledwith in a few days, and important testimony is expected.

Total land disposed of at the Walla Walla Land Office last month, 4,627 acres.

OREGON.

A company mining on Rogue river employs about 100 Chinamen.

Terry Larkin, of South Yamhill, killed a porcupine the other day. This animal is very rare in Oregon.

The Jacksonville Times (Dem.) is making vigorous war on Gov. Grover for his appointment of Duncan to be Judge of that county. Several of its contemporaries, among them the Herald, have tried to silence it, but it fights all of them, dealing right and left.

The Dallas Republican learns that there are about forty settlers on the Lower Nohalem, consisting mostly of men without families. Plenty of land can be obtained that is easily cleared, having to clear but small brush and vine maple. Vegetables of all descriptions grow prolific, and fish of different kinds are easily obtained from the waters.

From the Statesman: Mrs. Woodworth informs us that swarms of workmen are grading the road through the Calipooia mountains via Pass Creek, and their camp forms one of the most striking features of the wild landscape. It seemed as though a thousand men were at work, and teams in proportion. One effect has been that they have devoured everything before, behind and around them, like an army of grasshoppers, so that it is almost impossible to get anything for man or beast to eat; but luckily for the country, they pay cash at good rates for all they consume, and times are good thereabouts.

The Statesman says it is able to identify the dissatisfied immigrant who wrote the communication in our paper Saturday. It says he is the same man whom Ralph Geer met returning across the plains in 1847, and the party coming this way gathered around him to learn if he was leaving Oregon and what the reasons were why he didn't wish to remain here. Three reasons were several, and he gave them as follows: "In the first place, there ain't no bees thar; and in the second place, they can't raise corn thar; and if they can't raise corn thar they can't make bacon thar, and I won't live nowhar that they can't make bacon, for I must have my honey and my corn and my bacon sure, and them's the reasons why I am going back to the States, gentlemen." They say that the third time always proves a success, so we shall hope to see "Immigrant" come back here in about a dozen more years and make a live of it.

THE TERRITORIES.

Contributions for the great show on the 6th and 7th of October, at Olympia, are arriving.

The Union reports thirteen new cases of small-pox at Walla Walla. One, a child of W. M. Ewing, had died.

A Walla Walla paper says it has never seen "to let" on so many houses at present. Cause, the small pox scare.

A woman at Olympia has a pigeon that foolishly imagines itself a hen. It eats and roosts with the hens, and patronizes young chickens by trying to cover them with its little wings.

An anti-gambling club has been formed at Port Townsend. Its members are supposed to be persons who are "dead broke" by gambling, and therefore know the need of such a club.

A company has been formed to build reduction works at Helena (Montana), and the stock is all taken. Heretofore vast quantities of ore have been sent from the Territory for reduction.

There is another uproar in Utah and Brigham Young is indicted for his polygamous conduct. But so much noise has been made about polygamy on so many occasions, resulting in nothing, that we do not look with a remarkable degree of confidence for an immediate social revolution in Utah.

A Montana paper says: There is no doubt that the flush times of Montana have passed away. The decline in surface mining; the growing necessity for capital and economy in conducting deeper operations, and the gradual absorption of the claims into the hands of companies, or large owners, necessitate a change in the methods of business; and this change, in turn, requires cheaper and more rapid transportation. The railroad will revolutionize trade; and it certainly will not bring back the golden past to the small dealers.

Advices from Alaska state that some weeks ago, the schooner Mary Taylor of San Francisco, touched at a point 15 miles from Sitka and cached eighteen cases of spirits. Some time subsequently he went to the point and placed the cases in a canoe to carry them off. An Indian tribe living near overhauled the Captain's canoe and were presented with a case of the spirits to induce them to go away. Afterwards they followed the Captain and tried to take the remaining seventeen cases, when a scuffle ensued and one of the Indians was shot—accidentally it is said—through the back and killed. The Captain proceeded to Sitka and surrendered himself and gave up the military authorities. Three Indians who were implicated in the affair were also arrested and put under a guard. One of them in attempting to escape was shot through the breast and very badly wounded, but will recover.

Improving Woman's Position.—The unique ideas of Mrs. Woodhull on improving the race of men are producing considerable consternation among women inclined to the principle of Woman Suffrage. For the first time in this age at least woman finds herself presented simply as a breeding animal. We should feel it our duty to beg pardon of the sex for giving expression to the idea if it had not been advanced by one of themselves. Mrs. Woodhull, Mrs. Stanton, Miss Anthony and their associates are very much dissatisfied with woman's position now, and desire to improve it. They have got so far along the road of progress that they claim it one of woman's rights and privileges to choose the man to be father of her children without regard to previous alliances on the part of either. The sentiment of love is to be ignored. Women of the Woodhull-Stanton stripe are too lofty to stoop to sentiment. They will choose a mate for his noble and his physical development. If the result of her first choice is not satisfactory, she may choose again and continue to experiment until she meets one who realizes her ideal of what a father should be. Mrs. Woodhull assures us there is nothing sensual in this: it is all in the interest of science and for the benefit of the human race. "We need" says this eccentric woman, "a new race of men." The friends of Mrs. Stanton will possibly say that Mrs. Stanton should not be held responsible for Mrs. Woodhull's opinions. Far be it from us to hold anybody responsible for Mrs. Woodhull's opinions, but Mrs. Stanton's ideas as advanced in her lectures here, were almost identical. She was a little more cautious in her phraseology and tried to insinuate her meaning rather than utter it. Mrs. Woodhull is a bolder woman. Apparently with no more moral sense than the most abandoned outcast of her sex, she desires by the boldness and vileness of her utterances to attract attention and make herself talked about. A woman might accomplish the same purpose by appearing nude in the streets of New York, and we do not know why one should be held in higher esteem than the other. The whole question of woman's suffrage has an unpleasant odor and the really good women who want votes will, if for a time, in the hope that good might come from it, are now not only cutting clear of it but with a commendable flexibility of statement declaring that they never believed in it. Women of the Woodhull-Stanton-Anthony stripe are offensive to the senses.—Golden Era.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN STATES.

"Democratic" New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The publication of the list of names on the pay roll is continued. In some instances there are found names of persons long since deceased. Tammany officers draw the whole amount of dead men's wages. Tweed's Bureau and the Department of Buildings have the largest number of sinecures. In the Financial Department, besides monthly pay, clerks receive as much more for collecting arrears, &c. A man named Starkweather averaged about $2,000 a month as collector of assessments. Geo. H. Lynch received $1,160 a month for filling three offices. Many of those officials are related to the controlling powers. Starkweather is father-in-law to Gov. Hoffman. Politicians of the worst and most ignorant order are found scattered through this roll of sinecures, which includes retired pawnbrokers, bar-room loafers, ex-convicts, gamblers, bruisers and other bad characters. It is believed that the support of this army of ring hirelings costs the city $1,200,000 a year.

Connecticut Town Elections.

HARTFORD, Oct. 3.—In the town elections yesterday, the Republicans elected nearly their entire ticket here and at New Haven.

Secretary Fish to Retire.

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—The Times' Washington special says it seems indisputable that Secretary Fish has decided on an early retirement from the Cabinet. He retires of his own wish, and the change has no political bearings. In fact there will be an entire reorganization of the State Department. Mr. Davis, Assistant Secretary, goes to the Geneva Conference, and the law officer has just retired to take a position under the Japanese Government.

The report is that Andrew D. White of New York is to succeed Fish.

Additional New York News.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—This morning Judge Barnard, in his charge to the Grand Jury, alluded to the irregularities existing in the city government. He said one of the evils which should be stopped was the taking of illegal fees by officials. The election laws were flagrantly violated, and it was his intention to keep the Grand Jury in session till after the election so as to make a fair election. In this connection he enlarged upon the general corruption. He said that nearly all the fast horses and fast women in this city are supported from the city treasury.

Wm. H. Seward arrived to-day from Europe. His friends gave him a reception in the Bay. He left immediately for Peekskill.

New York Democratic Convention.

ROCHESTER, October 3.—The city is full of attendants upon the Democratic State Convention. There is talk of excluding the Tammany delegates. Indications are that there will be no contest for the organization, and Tammany will not press for admission.

Death of Gen. Totten.

ST. LOUIS, October 3.—Gen. James Totten, a well known artillery officer, died at Sedalia, Mo., yesterday.

North Carolina Ku-Klux.

WASHINGTON, October 3.—Telegrams from North Carolina say that Bond refuses to continue the Ku-Klux cases. Nine pleaded guilty yesterday.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—The American ship Black Hawk was sold by the United States Marshal on a bond given at Rio at Merchants' Exchange to-day for $15,750, C. A. Low & Co. being the purchasers.

The British ship Talavera as she now lies ashore at San Ramon Bay, will be sold to-morrow.

The recent prosecution of lottery ticket vendors have practically ended the sale of tickets here in nearly all schemes announced in the interior towns. The Grass Valley tickets are, however, selling to a considerable extent, and the Brooklyn (California) enterprise is going about tickets being taken up quite rapidly.

The afternoon seems cooler than yesterday, but the difference is not great. The heat is still very severe.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—The Odd Fellows' College and House Trustees met this forenoon, and resolved that the institution required $100,000 cash to be raised within one year, and then elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: President, Newton Booth; Vice President, J. A. Mcclelland; Secretary, C. N. Fox; Treasurer, M. B. Brooks.

A dispatch from San Pedro says the brig Advance, which went ashore there the second time, can be got off, not having filled as anticipated, and the weather being calm.

Demurrers to the indictment of the lottery ticket sellers were argued in the Municipal Court to-day and submitted, with leave to file brief within a week.

Further removals in the Custom House are expected immediately, now that the election is over.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 3.—Lower prices do not affect the movements in wool. Large stocks are arriving from the interior.

A slight shock of an earthquake was felt in the vicinity of Wilmington on Saturday.

SHASTA, Oct. 3.—Under Sheriff Jackson and party have arrived, bringing two stage robbers, five horses and four rifles, captured 16 miles from Susanville. Three of the robbers escaped before the Sheriff's party came upon them.

NEVADA

CARSON, Oct. 3.—Isaacs, the guard who was so badly wounded at the breaking out of the prisoners at Carson, had his leg amputated to-day. Fears are entertained that he will not recover.

UTAH.

More Arrests for Polygamy.

SALT LAKE, Oct. 3.—In the court this morning the counsel for Brigham Young asked that he be admitted to bail. Judge McKean denied the application for bail, but allowed the prisoner to remain in his own house no guarded for the present.

Daniel H. Wells, Mayor of Salt Lake City, and third President of the Mormon Church, was arrested this afternoon on charges similar to those preferred against Brigham Young. C. H. Hempstead and Thomas Fitch are counsel for defendants.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

In the Esquimalt District there are six candidates for the Local House, and all are trying to cut under each other by demagoging on the Chinese question. If they would but send for Gov. Grover!

The Indians at Cowichan are making great progress in the arts of civilization. They are building as good houses as the whites, and this year have been raising wheat, have fenced in a good lot of land, and have plenty of cattle and hogs.

The Common Council of Victoria has been trying to prosecute the Colonist for libel, but has got no further than the discovery that an appeal to law by the corporation in such a case is impossible. The Colonist suggests to individual members of the Council that they commence an action.

What would be the probable result of a national marriage between Tammany frauds and Ku Klux violence may be pretty clearly inferred from the demeanor of the respective parties to the courtship, now that each is on its best behavior. A prominent Southern Republican, however, a native of the South, and an uncompromising Union man throughout the war, whose character and sources of information are said to be alike reliable, has written a letter to a Government official at Washington, in which he states the Democratic programme to be to carry New York by fraud, and to remain quiescent in the South up to within a few weeks of the election, when the Ku-Klux organization is to develop its whole strength to intimidate Union men from the polls if they can, and to drive them away if they must.

Woman Suffrage—"Free Love."

A REPLY TO "T."

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

SIR: I notice your correspondent T., in the last WEEKLY OREGONIAN, raises the bugbear cry of "free love" against some of the leading advocates of woman suffrage. It seems freedom, in his mind, is necessarily connected with licentiousness, and slavery is the only condition in which virtue can be maintained. The woman suffrage advocates he names, do not advocate any principle that tends to licentiousness. They teach that no sexual relations that are not founded on pure love, affection and harmony, should be maintained. Is there anything unjust or unreasonable in that? or is there anything just or reasonable in compelling by law or public sentiment, two to continue their sexual relations to discord, disgust and hate? The physical, intellectual and moral character opposing is determined from the surroundings—physical, mental, passional and moral excesses of the parents, especially of the mother during the period of gestation. What then must be the character of the offspring of parents where no true love, affection or harmony exists? Such are the children of pure love, discord and confusion, with unbalanced minds, and are anything but durable beings. Yet the world is mostly peopled with just such results. The children of pure love, affection and harmony, are the exceptions and not the rule. Then why, in the name of reason and common sense, continue to force by law, the perpetuation of such results? Every child has the natural right to be well born, but are the children of such unholy relations well born? No; wonder the good people think such children ought to be "born again." Your correspondent T. seems unable to look at this subject in the light of reason and common sense, but through his early prejudice. This is his misfortune.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCT. 4, 1871.

A Chapter on Railroads.

At the Minnesota State Fair, held at Minneapolis last month, Horace Greeley delivered the annual address, in which he had much to say of railroads and the necessity of ruling them instead of allowing them to rule the country. If railway kings practice extortion in the transportation of merchandise and passengers, he would urge Legislatures to prescribe rates of charges, which no railroad should be permitted to exceed. Further, he would have the States "confer with each other, with intent to establish just and reasonable rates of transporation for goods passing from one to or through, another." A railroad, he said, can force a right of way anywhere. It represents that public interest in the construction of facile highways of transportation and travel to which individual convenience and individual choice must give way. The right of the landowner, then, is not absolute and indefeasible. He cannot do what he likes with his own. The public interests must be considered. But the same argument will hold against the railways. The railway king must be subjected to the same idea that the public interests are paramount. Hence extortionate charges, oppressive exactions on the part of the railways ought to be prohibited. The speaker said:

"I would do nothing unjust nor rash. 'Live and let live' is the true rule. It is your interest and mine that those who construct railroads shall derive a good income, a revenue, so as to encourage them and others to build more railroads. Though half the railroads on earth traverse this country, we shall construct more and more year by year, and shall need them faster than we can construct them. I would deal generously with all who promote the settlement and civilization of our wild regions; but I would strenuously insist on the right of the State to prevent the choking up and clogs of its chief highways by exorbitant and ruinous charges."

There is good sense and sound logic in these positions. Equally sound is his position on the subject of land grants. In opposition to the senseless outcry against all land grants, he made these forcible statements, which go right to the core of the matter:

"You tell me of the public lands given away to monopolists. I challenge your statement, and insist that the nation has more lands, not less, than if it had never granted an acre to build a railroad. For you cannot fairly measure lands by their superficial area alone. I saw millions of acres when I crossed the continent to California twelve years ago, that would have been very dear at five cents per acre before the Central Pacific railroad was built; since which, they are worth thirty times their value in 1859. Then you could not have supported an average family on 1,000 acres of sage-brush desert that could now be made to subsist forty just such families. To talk of this road as having, in any practical sense, subtracted or abstracted anything from the national domain, is to defy reason and insult common sense. If the whole region between the Missouri and the Sierra Nevada could be gridironed by four east and west and three north and south railroads, at a cost of half the public lands, 'still lying and being' therein, the half remaining ungranted would not merely be worth far more, but would furnish twice as many homesteads, as the whole did or would without the railroads. While, therefore, I counsel caution, moderation, circumspection, in making grants of public lands in aid of embryo railroads, I maintain that the policy is beneficent, and may yet be extended with advantage to the settlers and the country. Nor do I concur with those who say, 'the railroads may and will be built, even though no lands be granted.' In the course of two or three centuries they might be; but even that is doubtful. Madness, if madness abounded in cash, might construct one railroad across the continent without public aid; but madness could never find the means of building a second iron track across fifteen hundred miles of arid alkali and grease wood. And besides, since the public lands are enhanced in value immensely by the railroads that traverse them, it is but naked justice that they should defray a good share of the cost."

It would be hard to say if this subject has ever been better elucidated. We see the effects of the land-grant policy in our own State, where, without land grants, it is almost certain we would not have a mile of railroad today, nor perhaps the prospect of any. Mr. Greeley's argument is worthy of being repeated wherever it is necessary to meet those who narrowly and selfishly oppose judicious land grants for necessary railroads.

A convincing answer to the assertion so frequently put forth by an unnational partisan press, to the effect that the Southern States are oppressed, their industry unorganized, and their prosperity blocked by the arbitrary and tyrannical course of the Radical party, is presented by the [illegible] of September 8th, in the form of a statement of the cotton crop for the present year. The paper above named is an official authority in the matter, and its expense has collected from all parts of the South full statistics of the cotton crop. The aggregate is 4,347 [illegible] which comes nearly up to the prodigious yield of 1860—the crop that year amounting to 4,656,086 bales. Beyond doubt next year if a favorable season be had the yield will exceed that of 1860. The crop of the present year is 1,250,000 bales in excess of that of 1870. How feeble is party cant when met by such facts as these! We were told once that cotton could not be produced without slave labor. This was the ultimate argument of the slave propagandist, and was deemed a triumphant vindication of his position. We are told now that "Radical oppression" is impoverishing the Southern States. Yet there is a gain of 1,250,000 bales in the production of cotton in a single year, and the aggregate is now nearly up to the product of the most prosperous year of the days of slavery, and will next year go beyond it. Is there any wonder that a party which is so wrong and illogical in all its positions should always be defeated?

It is well understood that Mayor Hall of New York and his confederates of the ring were extremely anxious to get Controller Connolly out of office, thinking that they could thus both quiet public clamor and have a chance to put a man of their own stamp in his place, who would conceal the evidences of fraud which are now published to the world. This was the cause of Hall's frantic efforts to remove Connolly. But the latter refused to sacrifice himself to save his associates who are equally guilty with him, preferring to have their company, if he must perish. This was the reason why he placed Mr. A. H. Green in the office, who is now giving publicity to the manner in which the Democratic party does it in the most Democratic city of the United States. Let citizens read this morning's dispatches and say whether they want this system to become national. If they do they will, of course, labor to place the reins of government in the hands of the party that so manages things.

Yesterday we printed articles of incorporation of a Fire and Marine Insurance Company, which is to be purely and distinctively an Oregon institution. The corporators are well known and responsible men. An organization will be perfected shortly and subscriptions for stock solicited. This, as an Oregon enterprise, deserves the favorable consideration and support of our people. We may have more to say of it when it advances further.

A Strange Infatuation.

Theodore Tilton, the erratic, has created quite a sensation by writing a "Life" of the Woodhull, the notorious female who has given the woman suffrage movement a set-back by her advocacy of it. This "Life" the New York Tribune says is "certainly the most extraordinary book ever written out of Bedlam. Its richness of invention, its native ignorance, and its innocent immorality cause us to wonder whether the veteran romancer, Paul de Kock, who died lately, did not amuse his first leisure hours in the spirit world by dictating this preposterous book to the editor of the Golden Age." This is a characteristic extract from the volume:

Engrossed in business affairs, nevertheless, at any moment Mrs. Woodhull would rather die than live, such is her infinite estimate of the other world over this; but she disdains all common place parleyings with the spirit realm, such as are had in ordinary spirit manifestations. On the other hand she is passionately eager to see the spirits face to face; to summon them at her will, and to communicate with them at her pleasure. Twice, as she mistakenly believes, she has seen a vision of Jesus Christ, honored thus doubly over St. Paul, who saw his Master but once, and then was overcome by the sight.

There are few more brilliant writers than Theodore Tilton, but the Woodhull has captured him, and he has fallen from a position which he will probably never regain. Few can pardon the moral insanity and blasphemous bosh, not to speak of the absurd monstrosities which this book exhibits, and of which the above extract will afford a specimen. Besides claiming that the Woodhull has had two interviews with Jesus Christ in person, and has thus been more highly honored than St. Paul himself, who had but one, and fainted at that, Theodore credits her with the performance of two miracles in bringing the dead to life; one being the case of her own son, and the other a woman of New York.

The biography starts out with the assumption that by force-ordained fate its subject is to be elected Presidentess of the United States, and that pleasant fiction is kept up all the way through. For instance, we are told that Mrs. Woodhull was born the year the Queen of England was crowned, and was therefore named after the young Queen because she had "ordained a gift to all her little namesakes of Anno Domini 1838." Theodore says:

As Victoria Guelin was one of these, she has lately been urged to make a trip to Windsor Castle, to see the illustrious giver of these gifts, and to receive the special souvenir which the Queen's bounty is supposed to hold still in store for the Ohio babe that uttered its first cry as if to say, "Long live the Queen!" Mrs. Woodhull, who is now a candidate for the Presidency of the United States, should defer this visit till after her election, when she will have a beautiful opportunity to invite her elder sister in sovereignty—the mother of our mother country—to visit her fairest daughter, the Republic of the West.

So it will be seen that Theodore, with a faith that would remove mountains, assumes the election to the Presidency of the subject of his memoir. And then we have more bosh about her being "guided by the spirits and coming and going at their behest." The great Greek orator, Demosthenes, we are gravely assured, has been "chief among her spiritual visitants," and "has been a majestic guardian to her from the earliest years of her remembrance." She describes him as "a matured man of stately figure, clad in a Greek tunic, solemn and graceful in his aspect, strong in his influence, and altogether dominant over her life." This spirit of Demosthenes, we are told, has assured the fair Victoria that she is to be elected President.

This, we are sure, will be enough of this "Life" to satisfy the most exacting of our readers. Theodore Tilton, it is evident, has become a tail of the Woodhull kite, along with two of the Woodhull's divorced husbands, whom she still succeeds adroitly in turning to her own account. The upshot of this literary venture will be the undoing of a young man who once gave promise of rising to a high position in literature, and the bringing upon the woman suffrage movement no little contempt.

An Estimate of "Joaquin" Miller.

The New York Times of September 18th presents an elaborate criticism of "Joaquin" Miller's poetry and poetic powers. It opens its remarks on his Songs of the Sierras with this paragraph:

One of the ten poems in this volume no one is without a trace of a certain poetic power, and in two, dramatic interest, intensity of feeling, and a rythmic mastery of language are united in an unusual degree. The subjects are new to poetic treatment, but they are not new to literature—literature of a certain style and grade. Mr. Miller sings in these Songs of the Sierras—a well chosen title for his volume—of the half-horse, half-alligator man—and woman, who within the last twenty or twenty-five years has moved westward from Old Kaintuck, and has "located"—if that can be said to "locate," morally—on the purrayries, and in the canyons and gulches of the Far West. The volume reads as to its matter and somewhat as to its manner, like one of the dime novels—almost any one of them reduced to rhyme, but not to reason. This is the impression of it as a whole: certain parts of it, as we have already said, manifest an unusual degree of poetic power, but not a high power, in the new candidate for the honors of the laurel.

After giving several specimens of his verse the Times says:

From the passages already quoted a fair notion may be formed of Mr. Miller's style, both of thought and versification. The former is extravagant, strained, and marred by a constant and conscious striving after effect; the latter free, easy, rolling, and sometimes rough. Neither, however, are without a certain charm, and diminishes constantly on acquaintance. It is marked with a paucity of ideas, a feebleness of fancy, and a parrot-like limitation of language, that causes him to repeat himself, both in thought and in rhyme, again and again in the same short composition. Indeed, some of his rhetorical effects are produced by the use of the same words in various order within a few lines. In the poem he tells that

"The sun in fringes of the sea
Was tangled;"

and on the next page but one we read:

"He said these things as he stood with the Spaniards by the river's rim in the fields of clover,
While the stream flowed under and the clouds flew over,
With the sun tangled in and the fringes afire."

The tangling of sunbeams is a poor conceit enough at best, but plainly it has made no slight impression on Mr. Miller. And the four lines last quoted contain two ideas and two rhymes that he works over and over through fields of clover, and through fields of clover over and over, until the lines begin to seem like nonsensical verse made by boys tumbling over and over in heaps of clover, and in heaps of clover over and over, of a summer's evening in a hay field. And then brown girls and girls brown, with brown hands and hands brown are turning up so constantly that the book seems run brown before we get through its gallery of brunette beauties who, like a certain little boy in the Sandwich Islands, appear to be half Indian and half missionary.

The critic next proceeds to consider "Kit Carson's Ride:"

The hero, accompanied by a sort of Far-West, Leather-Stocking, is running off with a half-savage bride. The purrayrier takes fire, and the three ride for their lives to the Brazos, pursued by flames and bullhoves. The horses of the others give out, and Kit rides alone into the Brazos, his own horse blinded by the fire. Here, again, we don't get over our start without being clovered and overed and browned "out of all cess." The following lines are within the first twenty of the poem:

"We lay in the grasses and the sun-burnt clover
That crept on the ground like a great brown cover
Northward and southward, and west and away
To the Brazos, to where our lodges lay
Our bread and unbroken sea of brown,
Awaiting the curtains of night to come down
To cover us over and conceal our flight
With my brown bride, won from an Indian town
That lay in the rear the full ride of a night.

We lounged in the grasses—her eyes were in mine,
And her hands on my knee, and her hair wasn wine
In its wealth and its flood, pouring on and all over
Her bosom wine-red, and pressed never by one;
And her touch was as warm as the tongue of the clover
Burnt brown as it reached to the kiss of the sun,
And her words were as low as the mute-throated dove,
And as laden with love as the heart when it beats
In its hot eager answer to earliest love,
Or the bee hurried home by its burden of sweets."

Observe even here the penury of fancy and of language, besides that indicated by the clovering and overing and browning. The girl's hair was as wine and her bosom was wine-red. The truth is—and it is made manifest all through Mr. Miller's book—that his imagery is frequently suggested to him by the mere words that he uses, and he uses them again and again, deluded himself by their jingle, and deluding, it would seem, some of his readers who should have known better, into the belief that what sounds so prettily must have some meaning.

We cannot leave this spirited sketch without exposing the wretched false sentiment with which it is informed and deformed. His horse Pacho, the swiftest in the far West, is stolen for Kit by his brown bride; and when the flames overtake them, she falls behind, her own horse being unequal to the pace:

"And now as she fell
From the front, and went down in the ocean of fire,
The last that I saw was a look of delight
That I should escape—a love—a desire—
Yet never a word, not one look of appeal
Lest I should reach hand, or stay hand or stay heel
One instant for her in my terrible flight."

And he lets her do this, and rides into the Brazos "all alone" on her horse, and lives to tell the tale! And then because a civilized creature wants to buy the horse, he breaks out into a blast of sentimental "rot:"

Sell Pacho! You buy him! A bag full of gold!
You show him! Tell of him the tale I have told.
Why, he bore me through fire, and is blind and is old
Now pack up your papers, and get up and spin
To them cities you talk of. Bleat you and your tin!

This is pitiful! "Tell of him the tale I have told!" "Of him!" And this creature left his bride burned to a crisp upon the prairie, while he rode off alone on the horse she had given him. We must have better evidence than that of Mr. Joaquin Miller before we will believe that Kit Carson was so mean-souled a being. If he were he would have been the better for some of the training of an effete civilization. A Western dandy who had been so lache would have been ashamed thereafter to show his face in Beacon street or the Fifth avenue.

Mr. Miller's chief merit is a vivid imagination, of dramatic tendency; and to this he adds a very considerable skill in the manipulation of language. The great defect of his poems is the lack of originality. The newness of effect in them is due merely to their subjects, and to the use of Western words, and the description of Western people and scenery. In spirit and style he is a mere imitator at his best. If he is a young man, or a young writer, just feeling his poetic ants, this is not surprising to us, and should not be disheartening to him. In that case we may look for better things from him hereafter.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Tammany is still wrestling with impending fate. The leaders have "fallen out," and, being rogues, the prospect is that "honest men will get their due." The fact is that the members of the Tammany Ring are about equally involved, and they will make nothing by mutual recrimination.

Fernando Wood proposes that the bad men retire and the good men take the affairs of New York city into their own hands. Fernando thinks he sees one of the "good" men of whom he speaks whenever he looks in his glass, but he is not likely to get another chance at the city treasury by any such contrivance as this.

THE TERRITORIES.

It is understood that an effort to divide Walla Walla county will be pressed in the Washington Territory Legislature.

The United States Land Office at Lewiston has been opened with S. S. Slater, Register, and R. J. Monroe, Receiver.

HOW TO BE "NOBODY."—The Boston Traveler gives the following directions how to be "a nobody:" "Young man, it is easy to be nobody! Go to the drinking saloon and spend your leisure time. You need not drink much now—just a little beer or some other drink. In the meantime play chequers, dominoes, or something else. If you read let it be "dime novels" of the day; then go keep your stomach full and your head empty; and in a few years you will be nobody, unless you should prove to be a drunkard or a professional gambler, either of which is worse than to be nobody.

If you want a Parlor Suite and Marble Table go to HOLMAN & SHINDLER.

If you want a Bedroom Suite, a No. 1 Spring Mattress and a pure Curled Hair Mattress, HOLMAN & SHINDLER'S is the place to get it—corner First and Salmon streets.

REMARKABLE CURE OF THE DEPUTY JAILER OF MULTNOMAH COUNTY JAIL.

"The work goes bravely on." Case No. 6,240—Second series.

CITY JAIL, PORTLAND, Oregon, June 7, 1871.

A. M. LOWELL & Co.: I was attacked with a severe case of rheumatism. It was in my thighs, hips, fingers, shoulder blade—indeed in all the joints of my body. I suffered great pain and anguish. I was attended by a regular physician, but with no effect. I was induced to try your Unk Weed Remedy, and it immediately cured me up. I consider it, from my experience, the best remedy for rheumatism known.
ALFRED P. TURNER, Deputy Jailer.

This is to certify that the above statement is correct to my own knowledge. JOHN P. WARD, Jailer.

TO HOUSE BUILDERS & PAINTERS
"AVERILL CHEMICAL PAINTS."
THESE PAINTS ARE SO WELL KNOWN throughout the Atlantic States and their reputation so abundantly established for Beauty, Permanence and Economy
That we can confidently recommend and guarantee an entire satisfaction in their use.
THEIR COST is less than pure lends, and covers one-fifth more surface, making them the most economical Paints in the market.
THEIR DURABILITY is unquestioned. They dry hard with a smooth and glossy surface and will not chalk, crack or peel off.
THEIR ADAPTABILITY.—They are already mixed and ready for use and require no oil, turpentine or dryers. Are sold of any desired shade, by the gallon only.
Testimonials:
Gen. James S. Negley, M. C., Pittsburg, Pa., writes Nov. 10, '70: I have no hesitation in recommending the "Averill Chemical Paints" to those who regard economy and durability. It weathers our smoky atmosphere better than any Paints I have tested. The colors are rich and variable. Altogether I find them the CHEAPEST AND BEST."
"JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA CUSTOM HOUSE.—It looks as fresh and glossy as when first applied. I do not believe any LEAD AND OIL CAN EQUAL IT.
"WM. P. DOCKRAY."
I have carefully compared the cost and merits of the Averill Paints with White Lead and Oil and find 60 cents per gallon in favor of the former.

The Daily Oregonian.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCT. 4, 1871.

CITY.

FALSE RUMOR AND NEEDLESS ALARM.—There was a brisk little sensational breeze in this city yesterday afternoon, over a telegraphic report from the Cascades, to the effect that a child of Phillip Ritz, who was on the way down from Walla Walla, had broken out with small pox, on one of the steamers between here and the Dalles. The reporters, as in duty bound, rushed off to set up a warning howl and to read sanitary lectures to people about cleanliness, caution and vaccination. People rushed around as is usual on such occasions, to tell each other the unpleasant news and to cuss about people in general, who will allow any travel when they don't know whether or not they have got the small pox. Upon the arrival of the boat, however, the sensation got nipped, as it turned out that Mr. Ritz's child had not broken out with the small pox on the steamer, was not sick on the steamer or elsewhere, and, lastly, was not on the steamer at all. In short, Mr. Ritz did not have any of his children with him, nor could anybody be found among the passengers, suspected of having the small pox about her or him. The reporters' items in this behalf, will probably, however, do in a few days, as it may be reasonably expected that somebody will bring the small pox down.

HOUSE CAPTURED BY A CHINAMAN.—One of our north-end citizens had occasion yesterday to call on a policeman to rescue his house from the besieging out of the Chinese cook. Most of the Chinamen employed as house servants have a way of being excellent, tractable and good natured fellows for about a month, after which they fall into fits of being surly, careless, saucy, and sometimes ugly and destructive. This particular Chinaman had got into one of these fits, and during the absence of the master of the house had captured the premises, frightened the ladies out of the kitchen, and, when the master returned, was carrying his rule with a high hand. He refused to surrender and mouthed at "Melican" declaring that nobody should take him or drive him out of that kitchen. The master, thinking he could settle the unpleasantness himself, started in with the aid of the law that rule a rough and tumble or fisticuff, went for Ah Sam, and very soon brought the Celestial to his knees in supplicating terms, and restored the kitchen to its rightful occupant.

PASSENGERS FOR VICTORIA AND THE SOUND.—The steamer Alfred sailed from San Francisco for Victoria, on Monday, with the following list of passengers:

Miss Starrick and 2 children, George Hunter and family, Mrs Steel and infant, Mrs A S Higgins, Miss Sophia Burridge, Mrs Delgardner and daughter, Miss Hayward, Mrs G W Anderson and daughter, Mrs Stevens, Miss D Venille, sister and 2 servants, J S Stayroll, wife and son, A D Blowers and wife, Mrs Blowers, G W Blowers and son, R F Hunter, T L Yesler, J Brann, Jr, F P Harvey, Mr Bloomingdale and lady, Wm Dick, sr, M S Booth, Dr G W Lyon, Louis Schwabacher, E L Hastings, J J Hunt, F I Biggins, J Van Anken and family, Hy Myers, J H Biggins, F H Whitworth, and 35 white and 11 Chinese passengers in the steerage.

RETURN CONTINGENT CONSIGNED.—The matter of the Chinese harbor nuisance, Han Qoe pott, Yee Lee You respondent, and You Que the lady, was heard and decided yesterday by Judge Deady. A motion was made by the petitioner to discharge Yee Lee on the ground of the insufficiency of the return. The motion was not argued by respondent's counsel, and it was held that the woman was allowed to go where she pleased. As Quee is reasonably assured, the damsel has changed her mind and no longer wanted to leave Lee, and become bond of the bone and flesh of one flesh with Han Quo. On the contrary, she signified to the Court her wish of obtaining her respective rations of rice and her original lord and master. Han Que is a fond and despondent Chinaman.

PASSENGERS FROM THE NORTH.—The propeller Bonita Telfair, Ainslee, commander, arrived at her last past 9 A M. yesterday from Sitka and way ports. She brought the following list of passengers:

Gen Tidball, wife and 2 servants, Rev Mr Van Horn, wife and 2 children, Wm Francis, W C Hale and wife, John Sunday, L Stimpson, Mrs J Cummings, Miss A Bentley, Miss Kate Sherlock, Mrs Brown, E J Ziegler, McGoodwin, Mrs Jones and 3 children, A W Hosing, Miss L Donohue, Mrs Honey and 6 children, Miss Ellen Flynn, I Lippius, A Lippius, Miss Carrie Watkins, M Rothschild, N Baker, Peter Murphy, James Wallace, Thos McFarlan, Miss Banks, A Garber, S Wilson, G Strube, H Monnthoit, D Ross.

PERSISTENT MISREPRESENTATION.—The Kelama Beacon is constantly troubled with "low spirits." In the last issue it says: "At present, we are informed, there are only fourteen feet of water in the channel between here and Portland. At the last trip the Orifiamme she had to send her passengers and a share of her cargo to Portland by lighters." As to the Orifiamme the statement is entirely false. As to the balance of the Beacon's statements, we hear us out in saying that there is a channel seventeen feet of water arrive and depart with all the least trouble in all cases, when the pilots have not to run them aground out of the channel. The poor Beacon, however, will never, we reckon.

WATER FROM CUT OFF.—We learn that the supply of water to the North Portland school has been entirely cut off for three or four days. The school actually obtains its supply by tapping a small pipe at the lager beer brewery near by, and from Balch's lake. Since the water has become low the supply has been short for the brewery alone, and hence the school is left high and dry. Not enough can be obtained for even the sprinkling of the school house floors for sweeping purposes, and the floors have to go unswept. There is something radically wrong, evidently, in this matter which the Directors would do well to look after.

RESIGNED.—Charles A. P. Dennison has resigned the office of Director for School District No. 1, to take effect on the 15th inst. After going through the old accounts made when he was Director before, he has become satisfied that the district was over-paid an amount somewhere from $150 to $200 through the confused manner in which the accounts were kept, and the careless manner in which they were audited. He has, therefore, placed at the disposal of the Directors $150, such part of which as shall be found due the district to be applied in repayment.

BROADCAST SOWING.—A farmer came jogging into town yesterday with a load of wheat, and was asked for an opinion as to the prospective effect upon his business of the late bull movements in grain. He jogged and counted on his horses took fright at something, and dashed down Jefferson street to Front, strewing the farmer and his wagon and grain broadcast in their tracks. Such an acreage of broadcast sowing was never before seen in this city, but expectations as to the crop to follow are not particularly sanguine.

AN OREGON NUGGET.—There is on exhibition at Ladd & Tilton's bank a nugget of gold, taken from the claim of Caldwell & Co., Baker county, Oregon, which is the healthiest looking specimen that we have looked upon since the days when Mad Canyon was the maddest placer in the miner's directory. It weighs 170 ounces, and is worth in round dollars over $3,000, as it is almost entirely solid, pure gold. It was purchased of J. W. Virtue, gold dust broker of Baker City, by Capt. Ainsworth, who brought it to this city a few days since.

FIRE DEPARTMENT NOMINATIONS.—At a meeting of Columbian Engine Co. No. 3, last evening, Mr. Wm. O Breon was unanimously nominated as candidate for Chief Engineer of the Portland Fire Department. The election will take place on the first Monday of December.

At a regular meeting, held last evening, of the Vigilance Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1, Mr. Chas. D. Dietz received the unanimous vote of the company for Assistant Chief Engineer, at the next annual election.

TEACHERS INSTITUTE.—The third regular meeting of the Multnomah County Teachers' Institute will be held at the Central School building, Portland, on Saturday, October 7th, beginning at 10 A. M. Subject for discussion: School Architecture.

The quarterly examination of teachers for the county will be held at the same time and place.

SHIPPING.—The Skiddaw went to sea from Astoria on Monday.

The ship Davenby was run aground in the Columbia river opposite St. Helens yesterday.

ADMITTED TO CITIZENSHIP.—In the U. S. District Court, yesterday, August C. Scharr, of German birth, was admitted to citizenship.

PERSONAL.

Mr. C. A. Dolph arrived home yesterday afternoon, after an absence of something over two months on a visit to the Eastern States. He called at Salt Lake on his way back, and called upon Gov. Woods, who is just now in the midst of a lively misunderstanding with Brigham and the saints.

Among the passengers of note who arrived yesterday by the Gussie Telfair were Mr. Allen Francis, formerly American consul at Victoria, Gen. Tidball and family and Rev. Mr. Van Horn and family.

CHURCH NOTICES.—Divine service will be held this (Wednesday) evening at St. Stephen's chapel, Madison street, commencing at 7 o'clock, on behalf of the General Convention of the Episcopal Church, opened this day at the city of Baltimore. All are invited.

Rev. Mr. Kimball will preach, at half past 7 o'clock this evening, in the Unitarian Church.

OFF FOR SALEM.—Several of our retail dealers are off for the Fair Grounds, to fit up booths for trading purposes during the Fair. Among these, Messrs. Harry Oatman and Charley Martin, representatives of two family grocery houses who have joined forces for the Fair Ground campaign, went up yesterday. If anybody makes things buzz, it will be Oatman and Martin.

ONCE MORE.—For want of something else sensational the Kelama Beacon has had that same old vein of coal discovered again, near Pumphrey's landing. We calculate that vein will answer the Beacon for at least three local items.

DEPOSITIONS IN LAND SUIT.—The parties in the long pending suit of Starr vs Stark, involving large real estate interests in this city, were engaged yesterday afternoon in taking depositions before Ralph Wilcox, Examiner.

PASSENGERS OVERLAND.—Passed Yreka, yesterday, bound for Portland, by Oregon and California stage: Mrs. Bardy, Mr. Brunk, Mr. Sager, Mrs. Seahner, Mrs. Guernsey.

A. J. O'Neil & Co.'s, 95 First street, can be found the finest and largest stock of Clothing and Gents' Furnishing Goods in the city. The celebrated Star Shirt, a full supply, and the Guanoca Umbrella, the latest and best article out to keep off the Oregon mist. A look through O'Neil & Co.'s stock will benefit those investing. They sell at marvelously low figures.

KOHN & FISHEL have received by the late steamers large invoices of clothing and gents furnishing, and they now have the largest and best assortment of goods in their line in the city. They sell low, and everybody can buy. Go to Kohn & Fishel's 91 Front street for bargains.

Throat Affections and Hoarseness.—All suffering from Irritation of the Throat and Hoarseness will be agreeably surprised at the almost immediate relief afforded by the use of "Brown's Bronchial Troches." The demulcent ingredients allay pulmonary irritation, and after public speaking or singing, when the throat is wearied and weakened by too much exercise, their use will give renewed strength to the vocal organs.

Burnett's Cooking Extracts are the best.

TO OUR PATRONS AND THE PUBLIC GENerally desiring to make SAFE and RELIABLE Investments in Real Property, we beg leave at this time to call your attention to this DESIRABLE TRACT, which has been subdivided into Blocks and Lots, and is now in the Market, to be sold in Alternate Lots and Blocks.

No one that has ever visited this body of land but what will say that it is the MOST DESIRABLE for SUBURBAN RESIDENCES of any ever offered in this market, the land having a gradual slope from the River back to SEVENTEENTH STREET, there being scarcely any Block in the entire tract but what a

Fair View of the City of Portland and Willamette River

Can be had. Another advantage this Property will have for Residences: no high water will ever affect the drainage of the city.

The Oregon and California Railroad Company's New Ferry Boat is now making Regular Trips from the Foot of F street, Couch's Addition, to the Foot of Oregon street, Holladay's Addition.

IMPROVEMENTS TO BE MADE:

Aside from sizable Improvements now in contemplation by the Railroad Company, in the construction of Wharves, Warehouses and Machine Shops, quite a number of citizens will commence erecting fine Residences and Business Houses, also, Street Improvements, under contract, by grading and planking Holladay Avenue its entire length, to connect with the Sandy Road. We can say that at least a Half Million Dollars will be expended in Permanent Improvements on this Addition the present season.

TERMS OF SALE—10 per cent. CASH down; deferred payments, six and twelve months, with interest of the rate of 10 per cent. per annum.

NO QUESTION AS TO TITLE

The Title to this property is undisputed, being a portion of the Donation Land Claim of Jacob Wheeler and wife. United States Patent issued and conveyed by said Wheeler and Wife to Geo. W. Walker.

Parties desiring to invest will find Maps and Plats of the property at our Office, or at the Office of Messrs. FERRY, RUSSELL & WOODWARD, and other LAND AGENCIES in the city.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

THURSDAY EVENING, Oct. 3d, 1871.

Gold in New York, 114¾.

Currency, here, buying, 88c; selling, 88.

Our Gold quotations yesterday should have been 114¾.

The steamer Costa Rica arrived this morning. She will commence receiving freight for Sound ports to-morrow (Wednesday).

The steamer Ajax is due here to-morrow night.

The Central Pacific Railroad Company, in conjunction with the other lines, do not advance the tariff on Teas to New York, but raised it slightly to Chicago, Cincinnati and St. Louis. This just shows what this grasping, crushing monopoly does when it has the power. It is afraid of competition by the Sound ports to advance rates to New York on Teas and Silks, but those cities where no competition to fall it causes to "bleed." We were shown a letter in which the writer states that on a car load (10 tons) of freight, bound to San Francisco from the East, the price was advanced $50, or aggregating $450 freight for each car. Shippers think that this is but the beginning of further advances. From the compromise effected with the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, tariffs will probably be higher and remain up until the North Pacific Railroad is completed. Under this state of things country merchants must be prepared for advances in some articles of merchandise at any time, with further advances as freight tariffs from the East are raised. By telegraph we learn that the shipments of Teas from San Francisco for the month of September aggregated 3,035,360 lbs, and that of Coffee 471,466 lbs, the duties upon nearly all of which were collected at destination. We can safely calculate on a large majority of the Teas for the East being shipped via Portland upon completion of the North Pacific Railroad, as the master spirit who is directing so much energy and with such success to centre trade, in this spirit will not fail to turn the Tea and Rice traffic this way, well knowing that by so doing he adds to his already large wealth in enhancing the prices of his lands.

The want of a supply of available funds in our midst is felt by one most enterprising and leading business men to try and adopt measures by which we can at all times find relief. In furtherance of this object the most favorable project suggested is a Savings and Loan Bank incorporated and worked upon the same principle as is successfully carried out by those in San Francisco. There has been a belief among merchants that all such institutions are prohibited by our laws. For the benefit of all we called this morning upon a legal gentleman, whose decisions on the bench have gained for him a reputation among lawyers throughout the United States as a [illegible] and he says there exists a diversity of opinion on the subject, but to the best of his belief he does not see as there is any impediment to [illegible] any being incorporated and worked under the laws of this State, the only thing the construction for issuing the issuance of bank notes. This opinion [illegible] without any [illegible] to some time ago by another lawyer of distinction in this city. The formation of a Savings and Loan Bank in the city would be [illegible] to us. Our free patronage to [illegible] and retain within our midst all the [illegible] per this. A Savings Bank here would drain a large [illegible] of country money, for the largest majority of depositors are citizens of the working class, which constitute the class that build up savings banks. Take a large part (Idaho and nearly all of Oregon and Washington Territory, and [illegible] will give us, at the least calculation, not less than 20,000 persons who could and would [illegible] $100 each. This, we hardly think [illegible] and Washington Territory has a very large [illegible] their citizens engaged in [illegible] in some capacity in connection with them. Their capital is their labor, requiring no outlay of money for a season of rich returns and large. AND

European and Oregon Land Co.,

PORTLAND, OREGON, August 1, 1871.

THE COMPANY IS NOW PREPARED TO EXTEND [illegible] to pre-emption privilege of purchasing Railroad [illegible] commence of the same being placed in market, to [illegible] [illegible] of selecting, about on the following [illegible]

[illegible] filing in this office a claim in the form [illegible]

Pre-emption [illegible] No. ——

[illegible] of the European and Oregon Land [illegible]

[illegible] hereby notified that I have settled upon [illegible] description of land) in the county of [illegible], containing —— acres, and that I claim [illegible] right to purchase said lands at the Company's [illegible] calculation in accordance with the following resolution of the Directors of said Company, adopted on the twenty-sixth day of May, A.D. 1871, to the terms of which I hereby fully assent:

Resolved, That the parties settling upon and improving any of the lands of the European and Oregon Land Company, before the same are offered for market, shall be entitled to the pre-emption privilege of purchase, on the same terms as the Company would sell the land for without improvement, and shall be subject to the same conditions of payment, as all other lands belonging to the Company, when brought into market; provided, such settlers shall file in the Land Office of said Company, written application, giving notice of such settlement, and shall accept the privilege upon the condition that when the price of the land shall be fixed, notice thereof shall be sent by the Company's Land Agent, through the Postoffice, or otherwise, as may be convenient, to the residence of the party claiming the pre-emption privilege, and if the land is not purchased by the said party within sixty days from the date of such notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person.

[illegible] (Name of applicant.)

(Postoffice address.)

When the application is received, a certificate, signed by the Agent, obligating the Company to the terms, will be sent to the claimant in the following form:

PRE-EMPTION CERTIFICATE, No. ——

This is to certify that [illegible] of [illegible] county, State of Oregon, has [illegible] day filed in this office a pre-emption claim to [illegible] description of property, and is hereby entitled to the first privilege of purchasing said land at the Company's valuation, (which is to be made without reference to improvements) when the same shall be placed in market, in accordance with a resolution of the Board of Directors of said Company, adopted May 26, A.D. 1871.

When the price of the above-described land is fixed, notice thereof will be sent to the party to whom this Certificate is issued, and if the land is not purchased by the said party as the holder hereof within sixty days from the date of said notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person.

(Signed) [illegible]

Land Agent of the E. & O. Land Co.

The lands will be appraised by a competent, disinterested party, under oath, at their actual present value—no fancy or prospective price on the basis of similar lands in the vicinity, and when appraisement is made they will be sold in quantity not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres to one person, payable in five equal annual instalments, with interest from date of contract, at ten per cent per annum, principal and interest payable in United States Legal Tender Notes. Warranty deeds given after United States Patent issues, upon payment in full.
